

NOTES

ECO THE LNK ^ MARKET PARK

- THE PUBLIC MARKET
- ECO STORE NEBRASKA

Potential Marketable Products and Services:

- Local fresh and organic foods, market and distribution system
- Local repurposed/salvaged materials, pickups and market
- Center for Eco Products Information
- Local Arts and locally made products
- Waste Food distribution and food compost
- Year-round Processed Foods Center
- Eco System Culinary Training
- Cultural Restaurant Foods
- Deconstruction Services
- Construction & Demolition Waste Recovery Center
- Gypsum recycling and sales
- Construction training skills, Nebraska Corrections Department
- The Arts Eco Engagement Center
- Business, Governmental, and Institutional Sustainability Planning Training

Potential Partners:

- City of Lincoln
- University of Nebraska-Lincoln
- Southeast Community College
- Nebraska Corrections Department
- Lincoln Arts Council
- Associated General Contractors/ Selected General Contractors
- Nebraska Restaurants Association
- Nebraska Recycling Council
- Community Crops
- Mayor's Environmental Task Force
- Lincoln Food Policy Council
- Buy Fresh Buy Local

Application of SUSTAINOMETRICS to the Planning of the LNK Eco Market Park:

- Environmental Sustainability Indicators

- Means of Public Access to the Market
- Contributions to Clean Air
- Contributions to Clean Energy
- Contributions to Carbon Emissions
- Contributions to Reducing the Waste Stream to the Landfill
- Socio-Cultural Indicators
 - Elimination of Lincoln Food Deserts
 - Improvement of Community Childhood Nutrition
 - Improvement of Neighborhood Rehab and Sustainability
 - Engagement of Community Conservation Ethic
 - Expansion of Cultural Diversity
 - New opportunities for Transition Employment, Corrections Department
- Technologies
 - Creation of Active Deconstruction Programs
 - Creation of new Construction and Demolition Collaborations
 - Creation of new Food Hub Transportation System
 - Engagement of the Proposed Downtown Shuttle Transit System
 - Partnership Development of an new Food Processing Center
- Economics
 - Implementation of regional Value Added Growth, Farmers Production
 - Increased Wholesale Access to Local Foods
 - Increase in employment opportunities, Market, Store, Farm Production
 - Extracting $$ Value from reused materials
 - Growth of local
 - market value of Food, Materials, and Innovative Products
- Public Policy
 - New policies for Deconstruction and Neighborhood Rehab
 - New policies for Waste Management of Construction and Demolition Waste
 - New policies for City Government Conservation of materials and waste
 - New policies for food processing and food safety
 - New policies for Green Construction and the use of repurposed materials